

The Rocker

The Ernest Race Heritage Collection

Rocker with optional detachable back cushion

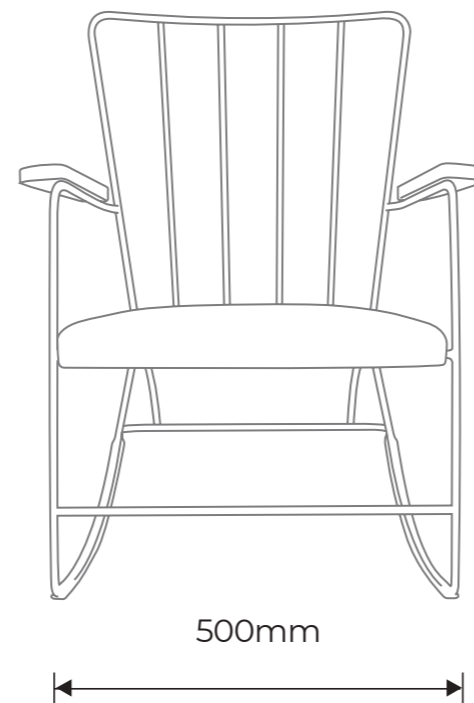

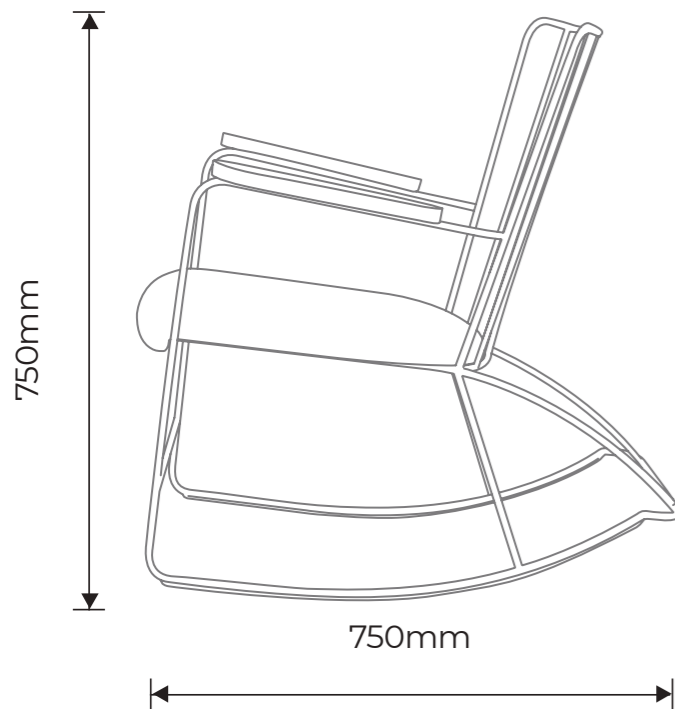

Frame in clear lacquer finish and stained wooden arms

The Rocker preceded the Antelope chair and represented Ernest Race's re-imagining of a classic rocking chair. Though not a fashionable concept at the time, it has become a highly collectable design icon. The Rocker comes with an upholstered seat, wood armrests and optional back cushion.

Optional Back cushion

- Rocking chair with upholstered seat
- Powder coated frame in a variety of colours
- Clear lacquer frame option
- Back upholstered cushion
- Oak veneer arms
- 6 week leadtime on standard product, depending on fabric availability
